

A bimonthly newsletter of the Mountain View SDA Church
Volume: 4 Issue: 05
Sept./October 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I greet you this newsletter with a grieving heart as our church has experienced great sadness. Not only to we mourn our friend and pastor Dave Wallace's death but others in our congregation have experienced great loss as well. The Mountain View Church would like to extend our sincere condolences to those who have experienced recent loss. Let us stand in the Hope of Christ and remember these grieving families sin prayer. Pastor Dave Wallace's service information is listed on page 7) and I list below the schedule for all the upcoming memorial services and funerals to be held here at Mountain View.

- Pastor Dave Wallace (Sept. 6th at 11:00 a.m.) Former associate pastor of Mountain View Church / Husband to Tierra Wallace
- Adelaida Concepcion (Sept. 9th at 4:00 p.m.) Sister to Mel Koch
- Eddie Lara (Sept. 9th at 6:30 p.m.) Husband to Nina Lara
- Lordino Yutoc (Sept 16th at 5:00 p.m.) Father to Pastor Loren Yutoc (Pastor of New & Living Way SDA Church in Las Vegas)

Our country is also going through great turmoil with the recent racial events and tragedy in Charlottesville, Virginia and the devastation in Texas from Hurricane Harvey. I have included on page two information on how to donate through ADRA to help those suffering in Texas. In regards to the racial tension and those who would seek to divide our nation, I have included a letter from our Union President, Ricardo Graham, on pages 3 and 4. I think his thoughts sum up mine as well. May we speak out against hate, racism and those who would seek to discriminate and persecute others just because of their heritage or skin color. May God's people stand united for peace, equality and love.

I would like to remind you that the Mountain View Church Office hours have changed slightly. The office will now close one hour earlier Monday through Thursday at 3:00 p.m. The church office hours are now Monday to Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and Fridays from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. We are seeking volunteer receptionists to assist in the church office. At this time, we are not replacing the Church secretary position so we are in great need for your help. If you are willing to lend a hand, please contact Pastor Melody Darrow. We are also seeking volunteers in the Community Service and in the Audio/Visual Booth during the worship services. Contact the church office for more information.

Please note that our next communion service will be Sabbath, September 16. The "Lord's Supper" will be celebrated in all worship services except the "Family" worship service. Foot washing will be in the gymnasium and may be done between the "The Early" and "The Classic" or during "The Main" worship service.

Your friend and brother in Christ,

BJ Boles
Senior Pastor

HURRICANE HARVEY

ADRA Supporting ACS in Response to Hurricane Harvey

On August 25, 2017 Hurricane Harvey slammed into the southern coast of Texas, leaving a path of devastation in its wake. The areas surrounding Corpus Christi, Rockport, and Houston have been greatly affected by the damaging winds and rising flood waters. The storm is currently moving at a slow pace and will impact the greater southeastern Texas area for several more days, dropping more than 40 inches of water on the region.

ADRA has been activated to support our partners Adventist Community Services (ACS) who are in the preparedness phase and waiting to respond through its southwestern United States regional office once needs have been established. Teams from the Mid-Atlantic region of the United States, are standing by and ready to help as well. ACS is collaborating with ADRA, the Red Cross, the United Parcel Service, and others, and will be ready when called upon to serve those impacted. ACS will continue working with local and federal agencies to identify the greatest needs and how they can be met effectively.

Please pray for all of those affected by this tragedy and consider making a donation to Adventist Community Services or ADRA. Donations may be made by:

BLESSED ARE THE PEACEMAKERS ...

An op-ed by Elder Ricardo Graham, president, Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Elder Graham can be reached through Ray Tetz (805) 358-3056

A young woman is dead in Charlottesville, Virginia. Her name is Heather Heyer. She was killed while protesting against a gross corruption of the American vision. She was protesting against hatred, against the idea that America belongs to one race, the white race, and one religion, the Christian religion.

Seventh-day Adventists everywhere mourn her death, while applauding her courage and convictions. That same day, a young black man, Deandre Harris, was beaten to within inches of death by a group of white supremacists wielding poles. The beating was captured by a photographer, whose image went viral.

Heyer's final Facebook post read: "If you're not outraged, you're not paying attention." I agree. There is a cancer growing in our land. And I can assure you it is not the spirit of Jesus Christ that divides people by race, that foments hatred and violence, that builds walls.

In churches throughout our land, our children learn a simple song: "Red and yellow, black and white, all are precious in His sight." This song captures the spirit not only of the gospel of Jesus Christ but of what has made America truly great. Abraham Lincoln invoked this spirit when he described what our founding fathers had done as creating a nation "dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal." Today, I would add women.

The gospel is the great equalizer. The apostle Paul declares: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus" (Galatians 3:28, NKJV).

America is a land of free speech, but that doesn't mean we can't condemn racist and intolerant speech that attacks Jews and Blacks. Christians owe an enormous debt to Jews for the gift of the Scriptures and even for our Messiah, Jesus. There is no place for anti-Semitism in the heart of a Christian.

In the dark days of the depression, America's folk singer Woody Guthrie penned a famous anthem declaring, "This land belongs to you and me." From California to the New York Island, this land is your land, this land is my land.

Growing up in 1960s Detroit, racial unrest is far from foreign to me. But never could I have imagined that 50 years later not only would our racial wounds have not healed, but they have further deteriorated in many ways. As a Christian leader, I now call first on all who name the name of Christ, but who have been nurturing the spirit of division, to repent. If you are indulging the spirit of racial division, the spirit of anti-Semitism, you must repent. There simply is no place for hatred among followers of Christ. No place for racism or intolerance.

To those who make no profession of faith, I offer my sincere apology and repentance on behalf of Christians who have offended you, who have promoted bigotry and racism and anti-Semitism and intolerance in Christ's name. On behalf of those who have hated in Christ's name, who have been violent and even killed ostensibly in Christ's name. With you, I mourn for those, like Heather Heyer, who have been murdered, and for those, like DeAndre Harris, who have been brutally beaten.

I call on Americans everywhere to stop remaining silent in the face of an ideology that proclaims our nation belongs to some, but not to all. Silence in the face of evil is sin. By voice and deed, do all in your power to be a peacemaker, to build bridges not walls, to reach out your arm and bring people in instead of excluding them.

Today of all days we need to meditate on Jesus' words in the Sermon on the Mount:
Blessed are those who mourn,
For they will be comforted.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
For they will be called children of God (Matthew 5:4, 9, NIV).

- Elder Ricardo Graham, DMin, is president of the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

Conference Cable

Spiritual Power

with Elder Leon B. Brown, Conference President

The Messiah had been crucified and just a few days later he was resurrected. The disciples actually got a chance to see Jesus before He was resurrected from the tomb.

In His last words of comfort, Jesus tells the apostles to go to Jerusalem to wait for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus talked about this Holy Spirit, but no one has ever seen, heard or experienced this new form of spiritual power before.

Plus, the disciples themselves were having a few issues. They just couldn't seem to get along. It was hard just trying to work with with some of these characters. If you could have asked any one of them, they probably would've told you, "if you knew these difficult characters, you would understand."

But, something amazing occurred. At the end of their time together in the upper room, a wonderful transformation began that would identify and characterize these men and women and their movement forever.

Angry, selfish and faithless men and women were literally changed forever when they encountered the power of the Spirit of God.

What happened in that upper room? Paul says this; "...And everyone present was filled with the Holy Spirit..." (Acts 2:4, first part [NLT]) They all opened up their hearts and minds to receive the precious gift that Jesus had provided for them in His absence. We can receive it today, as well.
